Please join us for a briefing on Intellectual Property Rights in China

Featuring

Chris Israel, International IPR Enforcement Coordinator

Wednesday, September 28, 2005

2:00 – 3:00 pm

2318 Rayburn

Dear Colleague:

Please join the Congressional China Caucus for a briefing by Chris Israel, the newly-appointed International IPR Enforcement Coordinator, on Wednesday, September 28 at 2:00 pm in 2318 Rayburn. Mr. Israel recently returned from a week-long trip to China and will share his impressions of IPR enforcement and discuss ongoing U.S. and Chinese initiatives to fight IP theft. This briefing is open to all Members and staff.

The Congressional China Caucus is a forum for Members of Congress who share a common interest in the emergence of China as a political, economic and military actor on both the regional and global stage. The Caucus investigates and analyzes a number of issues pertaining to China including: Military/Shipbuilding; Economy/Trade; Intellectual Property; Energy/Resources; and Human Rights/Religious Freedoms.

If you are interested in attending the briefing or joining the Congressional China Caucus, please contact Jamie Jones Miller (Forbes) at x56365 or Jamie.Miller@mail.house.gov.
